

Dams must remain instruments of peace and development