The new ICOLD has given itself the mandate of 'addressing the world's dam safety needs through knowledge sharing and technical assistance, while providing support to the dam industry in order to increase the safety and reliability of its infrastructure. ICOLD is now an international organization of dam engineers and experts from around the world. ICOLD is the only dam safety organization in the world with a mandate to address the safety of dams worldwide. The new ICOLD has been created by the merger of the International Commission on Large Dams (ICLD) and the International Commission on Dam Safety (ICDS).
